school they feel they can excel because the other school offers the better opportunity in athletics than it does maybe in the academic field. So, you know, those things are all problematic in everybody's mind, but I think that most of us have had experiences where kids have transferred simply for the purpose of getting a better opportunity to participate in athletics. I was glad to hear Senator Raikes explain the issue that he did because it cleared up something in my mind about why it's necessary to have this in the statute. And with that, I will turn the rest of the time back to my good friend, Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. Senator Bromm.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Mr. President. I haven't participated in this discussion yet. Been listening carefully. I have an interest in...I had an interest in why we were doing this in statute and why we needed to, and I'm not sure I'm still convinced that we do, but I do understand what Senator Raikes and Senator Stuhr, the point they have made about the fact that we do have a statute that says we treat option students the same. And there seems to be a desire to treat them differently when it comes to participation in extracurricular activities, and this would provide the means to do that. But it raises another question in my mind that, and I have an amendment following this which we may or may not get to, but the amendment is an opportunity to discuss if we do this policy that's proposed by Senator Stuhr and the committee amendment, we're taking care of option students and their participation in extracurricular activities. But we are leaving at least two other classes of transfers subject to a different rule of the NSAA, and that would be transfers to and from public and private schools, and transfers from public schools to public schools within a school district. Lincoln Northeast to Southeast, you have a 90 day lay-out period, but if you come in from Waverly, you'll be able to participate immediately. That makes no sense to me. And I know Senator Stuhr says this is an option enrollment bill, but we're, for the first time in statute, putting in the conditions under which you can participate in extracurricular activities if you move from one school to another. And I'm going to have a hard time doing that in one
